

Seaburn Sat. Feb. 27/41

My Dear Friend:

I sent in yesterday a letter of nine pages to Maria wh. I hope arrived safely - inclosed in a note to Miss C. in wh. I told her to tell you that I should be in town today to hear the news of the letters. The weather is so bad that I shall not go in today & I suppose it likely that you will not either. Next Saturday I will come in, God willing, & shall hope to hear the documents; but in the mean time I pray you to send me some particulars rec^d by the Lochiel & also the other news general & domestic which may be to be told. Maria's letter to me gives an account of the deposition & forfeiture of one of the property of the Loch but no particulars of their other doings or of their health.
What is the Birney letter? I told Maria that she was hard come out of the reach of C. F. news than I am. What did Garrison go to N. H. for? Did n't you mean Leicester? Where are all your family now you have not the center between 25 Lomb St & the South End to "waddle" round?

What did the 3^d party Convention do? And how many men in backroom did they manufacture?

I am hungry for news & shall be near subscribing for the Abolitionist if I don't get any. What think you of Adin Ballou's plan? It seems to me feasible & I think will succeed on account of the character of the men as working men &c, better than Quakers. Did you observe that he has adopted your plan for the cure of all social evils - the principle that a days work is a days work ? "Great with you," as he used to say at the gymnasium.

I think however Garrison might have given a lot somebody to give a synopsis of the plan, without picking up the Libt. with it in excuse.

Write tomorrow write Long - fear not being tedious - tell all you know & all you do not know - oblige

your reasonable but true friend

Edmund Quincy.
